Performances

An American in Paris

Serena presents an introspective solo flute program of curated works by French and American composers, classical to contemporary. The program includes many composers of mixed backgrounds, reflecting Serena's experience of being American with Taiwanese parents, living in France. Performances of this concert have been given at l'Espace Ochoa, Galerie First Floor, and at private salons.

Ensemble Accent

Ensemble Accent is a flute-focused group with a mission to introduce new audiences to classical and contemporary music. The group actively collaborates with composers such as Luiz Castelões to record and perform new pieces. Ensemble Accent has performed at the Mairie de 17ème, Galerie First Floor, and various private salons.
